

CURRICULUM VITAE (October 2019)

Cormac M. Nagle OFM

I. Personal Details

Birthday: December 4, 1932.

Address: Unit 5, 10-12, Bedford St, Box Hill, Victoria, 3128 Australia.

Email: c.nagle@ytu.edu.au ; cnagle@franciscans.org.au

Professed Member of the Order of Friars Minor, Ordained priest (29 June 1957)

Current Position/Role: Ethicist, Mercy Health Care

Emeritus Associate Professor, University of Divinity, Lecturer in Moral Theology Yarra Theological Union.

II. Academic Qualifications

Diploma in Theological Studies—St Paschal's College, Box Hill, 1957.

Diploma in Italian Language and Culture, University of Perugia, 1961.

Doctor of Canon Law (JCD), summa cum laude, Pontificium Athenaeum Antonianum (University of Sant' Antonio), Rome. 1964.

Certification as Worldwide Lecturer for Franciscan Order, "Lector Generalis" (= Dip.Ed), 1964-65.

Post doctoral fellowship in Moral Theology: Catholic University of America, Washington DC, 1976 -77.

Sabbatical Studies in Bioethics, Certificate: Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley CA, 1991 – 1992.

Inaugural Associate Professor of the University of Divinity. October 5, 2012.

Catholic Health Australia Maria Cunningham Lifetime Achievement Award. Canberra, 2015.

III. Educational Background Secondary Education:

St Anthony's College, Robertson, NSW

Tertiary Education: St Paschal's College, Box Hill, Vic.

Post-graduate Education: Pontificium Antonianum (University of St Anthony), Rome.

Post-doctoral Fellow, Catholic University of America, Washington DC, 1976-1977.

Studies in Bioethics Certificate, Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley, 1991-1992.

IV. Teaching Experience

Secondary teacher at Padua College, Kedron, Q'ld, 1958-1959.

Lecturer in Moral Theology, St Paschal's College, Box Hill, 1965 & Yarra Theological Union, (University of Divinity) 1971-1976, 1993-2015.

Lecturer in Bioethics to Midwives, Mercy Hospital for Women, 1974-1976; Neo-Natal Intensive Care Nurses; Senior Medical Staff, Mercy Hospital for Women East Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

Lecturer in Social Justice & Ethics, Australian Catholic University, 1997.

Lecturer in Bioethics to 5th year Medical Students (Melbourne University) at Mercy Hospital for Women, 1999-2001.

V. Professional/Administrative Experience

Administrative Positions: 1971 - 1974: Provincial Councillor for Australasian Province of Franciscans.

1977 - 1985: Provincial Superior of Australasian Province of Franciscans (OFM) - Australia, Papua New Guinea, New Zealand, Singapore-Malaysia.

1985 - 1991: General Councillor of Franciscan Order (Rome), with responsibility for Asia/Oceania region.

1995- 2002 Appointed by the Vatican as Pontifical Commissioner (superior general) of the Confraternity of Christ the Priest (An Australian institute of Religious Men).

Formerly, Acting-president Clerical Major Superiors' Conference, Australia; Secretary, Combined Conferences of Major Religious Superiors, Australia; President of Combined Conferences of Franciscan Superiors of Asia/Oceania; Educational: 1971 – 1976; 1994--2006: Dean of Studies and Director of Formation for Franciscan Order in Australasia.

Industry: Ethicist, Mercy Health & Aged Care, 1994-

Member Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) of Commonwealth Government, Australia.

Formerly Member of Australian Catholic Bishops' Commission for Doctrine and Morals; Commission for Clergy and Religious.

Committee member: Mercy Health and Aged Care Ethics Committee; Mercy Health and Aged Care Research Ethics Committee;

Catholic Health Australia: Member of Education and Formation (Mission) Committee.

Formerly, Pinelodge Private Hospital, Dandenong: Research Ethics Committee

Formerly: Elected Board member: Caroline Chisholm Centre for Health Ethics. Member Advisory Ethics Committee. 2017.

Formerly, Consultant in Canon Law and Ethics: Catholic Health Care Services; Sisters of Charity Health Service; Mater Hospital, Newcastle; Sisters of Mercy, Singleton; and other Congregations.

VI. Professional Associations/ Memberships

Founding Member of the Canon Law Society ANZ;

Member of the Australasian Moral Theology Association;

Member of the Australasian Bioethics/Law Association;

Member Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) of Commonwealth Government.

Justice of the Peace.

Member Australasian Association of Catholic Bioethicists.